

National Guard and Public Safety

Preliminary Engineer Report HUB Conceptual Design

The North Carolina National Guard is our first defense and saving grace in times of natural disasters and state emergencies. The Connect NC bond provides $70 million designated for building regional training centers across North Carolina that will help to keep us safe and bolster our state's National Guard.